Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This building faces west onto Maryland Route 765. It is part of the commercial district of Prince Frederick. It is a one-story framed and weatherboarded store building oriented with its gable end toward the street. A central double-door entrance is flanked by plate-glass commercial windows. There is a one-bay hyphen between this building and the one located immediately to the south. Vinyl siding and some brick veneer around the foundation are new.
